Nature of Operations

International Land Alliance, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated under the laws of the State of Wyoming on September 26, 2013 (inception). The Company is a residential land development company with target properties located in the Baja California, Norte region of Mexico and Southern California. The Company's principal activities are purchasing properties, obtaining zoning and other entitlements required to subdivide the properties into residential and commercial building plots, securing financing for the purchase of the plots, improving the properties infrastructure and amenities, and selling the plots to homebuyers, retirees, investors, and commercial developers.

On March 18, 2019, the Company acquired real property located in Hemet, California, which included approximately 80 acres of land and two structures for $1.1 million. The property includes the main parcel of land with existing structures along with three additional parcels of land which are vacant plots to be used for the purpose of development. The Company is generating Airbnb sales and lease income from this property.

In October 2019, the Company entered into an agreement with Valdeland, S.A. de C.V.("Valdeland"), a Mexican corporation controlled by our CEO, Robert Valdes, to acquire 1 acre of land at the Bajamar Ocean Front Golf Resort in Ensenada, Baja California, known as the Costa Bajamar. The transfer of title to for this project is subject to approval from the Mexican government in Baja California. Although management believes that the transfer of title to the land will be approved and transferred by the end of our fourth fiscal quarter of 2021, there is no assurance that such transfer of title will be approved in that time frame or at all.

On October 25, 2020, the Company entered into a business agreement with A&F Agriculture LLC ("A&F"), in which the parties agreed to operate a business for the purpose of commercially cultivating industrial hemp at the Company's property in Southern California. A&F will be the managing party of the business agreement. The Company will provide A&F with the land and water supply for the purpose of the cultivation. All revenue and expenses associated with the cultivation will be split equally among parties.

On March 29, 2021, the Company executed a Letter of Intent (the "LOI") to acquire two parcels of land in Rosarito Beach, Baja California, Mexico, with total surface area of roughly 32 acres valued at approximately $6 million. The all-stock transaction includes plans and permits for an existing 450-homesite project situated near the Pacific Ocean, with existing sales averaging $50,000 per residential plot. The LOI includes the accounts receivable for plots sold and the remaining unsold plots. The closing is subject to standard conditions including, completion of due diligence by both parties and the negotiation and execution of mutually acceptable definitive documents. The Agreement merely represents the present understanding with respect to the intended acquisition transaction and is not binding upon the parties.

The unaudited financial statements herein have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The accompanying interim unaudited financial statements have been prepared under the presumption that users of the interim financial information have either read or have access to the audited financial statements for the latest year ended December 31, 2020. Accordingly, note disclosures which would substantially duplicate the disclosures contained in the December 31, 2020, audited financial statements have been omitted from these interim unaudited financial statements.

Certain information and note disclosures included in the financial statements prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP" or "GAAP") have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the six months ended June 30, 2021, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2021. For further information, refer to the audited financial statements and notes for the year ended December 31, 2020, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on April 2, 2021.

Liquidity and Going Concern

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business.

Management evaluated all relevant conditions and events that are reasonably known or reasonably knowable, in the aggregate, as of the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued and determined that substantial doubt exists about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company's ability to generate revenues and raise capital. The Company has faced significant liquidity shortages as shown in the accompanying financial statements. As of June 30, 2021, the Company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by $2.4 million. The Company has recorded a net loss of approximately $2.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2021, and has an accumulated deficit of $12.6 million as of June 30, 2021. Net cash used in operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2021, was approximately $0.4 million. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Management anticipates that the Company's capital resources will significantly improve if its plots of land gain wider market recognition and acceptance resulting in increased plot sales. Subsequent to June 30, 2021, the Company entered into securities purchase agreements with institutional and accredited investors for the issuance of an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares of common stock with an equivalent number of warrants for net proceeds of $1.9 million (See note 10).

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company maintains its accounting records on an accrual basis in accordance with GAAP. These consolidated financial statements are presented in United States dollars. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q. All adjustments which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the interim periods have been made and are of a recurring nature unless otherwise disclosed herein.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its wholly-owned subsidiaries, ILA Fund I, LLC (the "ILA Fund"), a company incorporated in the State of Wyoming and International Land Alliance, S.A. de C.V., a company incorporated in Mexico ("ILA Mexico"), Emerald Grove Estates LLC ("Emerald Estates"), incorporated in the State of California; the Company has a 100% equity interest in ILA Mexico and in Emerald Estates. ILA Fund includes cash as its only assets with minimal expenses as of June 30, 2021. The sole purpose of ILA Fund is strategic funding for the operations of the Company. ILA Mexico has plots held for sale for the Oasis Park Resort, no liabilities, and minimal expenses as of June 30, 2021. The Company granted deed of the property in Sycamore Road, Hemet, California to Emerald Estates. All intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management regularly evaluates estimates and assumptions related to the valuation of assets and liabilities. Management bases its estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the accrual of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results experienced by the Company may differ materially and adversely from management's estimates. To the extent there are material differences between the estimates and the actual results, future results of operations will be affected. Significant estimates include:

- Liability for legal contingencies.
- Useful life of building.
- Assumptions used in valuing equity instruments.
- Deferred income taxes and related valuation allowances.
- Going concern.
- Assessment of long-term asset for impairment.

Fair value of Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measurements

Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 820 Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy based on the level of independent, objective evidence surrounding the inputs used to measure fair value. A financial instrument's categorization within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. ASC 820 prioritizes the inputs into three levels that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1

Level 1 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2

Level 2 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets with insufficient volume or infrequent transactions (less active markets); or model-derived valuations in which significant inputs are observable or can be derived principally from, or corroborated by, observable market data. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3

Level 3 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are unobservable inputs to the valuation methodology that are significant to the measurement of the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

As defined by ASC 820, the fair value of a financial instrument is the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale, which was further clarified as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability ("an exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The reported fair values for financial instruments that use Level 2 and Level 3 inputs to determine fair value are based on a variety of factors and assumptions. Accordingly, certain fair values may not represent actual values of the Company's financial instruments that could have been realized as of any balance sheet dates presented or that will be recognized in the future, and do not include expenses that could be incurred in an actual settlement. The carrying amounts of the Company's financial assets and liabilities, such as cashaccounts payable, accrued liabilities, related party and third-party notes payables approximate fair value due to their relatively short maturities. Equity-method investment is recorded at cost, which approximates its fair value since the consideration transferred includes cash and a non-monetary transaction, in the form of the Company's common stock, which was valued based on a combination of a market and asset approach.

Cost Capitalization

The cost of buildings and improvements includes the purchase price of the property, legal fees, and other acquisition costs. Costs directly related to planning, developing, initial leasing and constructing a property are capitalized and classified as Buildings in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Capitalized development costs include interest, property taxes, insurance, and other direct project costs incurred during the period of development.

A variety of costs are incurred in the acquisition, development and leasing of properties. After determination is made to capitalize a cost, it is allocated to the specific component of a project that is benefited. Determination of when a development project is substantially complete, and capitalization must cease, involves a degree of judgment. Our capitalization policy on development properties is guided by ASC 835-20 Interest – Capitalization of Interest and ASC 970 Real Estate - General. The costs of land and buildings under development include specifically identifiable costs. The capitalized costs include pre-construction costs essential to the development of the property, development costs, construction costs, interest costs, real estate taxes, salaries and related costs and other costs incurred during the period of development. We consider a construction project as substantially completed and held available for occupancy or sale upon the receipt of certificates of occupancy, but no later than one year from cessation of major construction activity. We cease capitalization on the portion (1) substantially completed and (2) occupied or held available for occupancy, and we capitalize only those costs associated with the portion under construction.

Land Held for Sale

The Company considers properties to be assets held for sale when (1) management commits to a plan to sell the property; (2) the property is available for immediate sale in its present condition and (3) the property is actively being marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable given our estimate of current market value. Upon designation of a property as an asset held for sale, we record the property's value at the lower of its carrying value or its estimated net realizable value.

Land and Buildings

Land and buildings are stated at cost. Depreciation is provided by the use of the straight-line and accelerated methods for financial and tax reporting purposes, respectively, over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Buildings will have an estimated useful life of 20 years. Land is an indefinite lived asset that is stated at fair value at date of acquisition.

Revenue Recognition

Under Topic 606, revenue is recognized when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to our customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration we expect to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. The guidance sets forth a five-step revenue recognition model which replaces the prior revenue recognition guidance in its entirety and is intended to eliminate numerous industry-specific pieces of revenue recognition guidance that have historically existed in U.S. GAAP. The underlying principle of the standard is that a business or other organization will recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects what it expects to receive in exchange for the goods or services. The standard also requires more detailed disclosures and provides additional guidance for transactions that were not addressed completely in the prior accounting guidance.

The Company determines revenue recognition through the following steps:

- identification of the agreement, or agreements, with a buyer and/or investor;
- identification of the performance obligations in the agreement for the sale of plots including delivering title to the property being acquired from ILA;
- determination of the transaction price;
- allocation of the transaction price to the plots purchased when issued with equity or warrants to purchase equity in the Company; and
- recognition of revenue when, or as, we satisfy a performance obligation such as delivering title to plots purchased.

Revenue is measured based on considerations specified in the agreements with our customers. A contract exists when it becomes a legally enforceable agreement with a customer. The contract is based on either the acceptance of standard terms and conditions as stated in our agreement of plot sales or the execution of terms and conditions contracts with third parties and investors. These contracts define each party's rights, payment terms and other contractual terms and conditions of the sale. Consideration was historically paid prior to transfer of title as stated above and in future land sales, the Company plans to transfer title to buyers at the time consideration has been transferred if the acquisition of the property has been completed by the Company. The Company applies judgment in determining the customer's ability and intention to pay; however, collection risk is mitigated through collecting payment in advance or through escrow arrangements. A performance obligation is a promise in a contract or agreement to transfer a distinct product or item to the customer, which for us is transfer of title to our buyers. Performance obligations promised in a contract are identified based on the property that will be transferred to the customer that are both capable of being distinct and are distinct in the context of the contract, whereby the transfer of the property is separately identifiable from other promises in the contract. We have concluded the sale of property and delivering title is accounted for as a single performance obligation.

The transaction price of a contract is allocated to each distinct performance obligation and recognized as revenue when or as the customer receives the benefit of the performance obligation. The transaction price is determined based on the consideration to which we will expect to receive in exchange for transferring title to the customer.

The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation in a contract by transferring control over property to a customer when land title is legally transferred by the Company. The Company's principal activities in the real estate development industry which it generates its revenues is the sale of developed and undeveloped land.

Advertising costs

The Company expenses advertising costs when incurred. Advertising costs incurred amounted to $39,200 and $416,822 for the six months ended June 30, 2021, and 2020, respectively.

Debt issuance costs and debt discounts

Debt issuance costs and debt discounts are being amortized over the lives of the related financings on a basis that approximates the effective interest method. Costs and discounts are presented as a reduction of the related debt in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Stock-Based Compensation

The fair value of stock options is estimated on the grant date using the Black-Scholes option pricing model, based on weighted average assumptions. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of our common stock. The Company has elected to use the simplified method described in the Securities and Exchange Commission Staff Accounting Bulletin Topic 14C to estimate the expected term of employee stock options. The risk-free rate is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. The value of restricted stock awards is determined using the fair value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The Company accounts for forfeitures as they occur. Compensation expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period of the award.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes. The asset and liability method provide that deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities, and for operating loss and tax credit carry forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the currently enacted tax rates and laws. The Company records a valuation allowance to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is believed more likely than not to be realized.

When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. In accordance with the guidance of ASC 740, the benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50 percent likely of being realized upon settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above should be reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheets along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Management makes estimates and judgments about our future taxable income that are based on assumptions that are consistent with our plans and estimates. Should the actual amounts differ from our estimates, the amount of our valuation allowance could be materially impacted. Any adjustment to the deferred tax asset valuation allowance would be recorded in the income statement for the periods in which the adjustment is determined to be required. Management does not believe that it has taken any positions that would require the recording of any additional tax liability nor does it believe that there are any unrealized tax benefits that would either increase or decrease within the next year.

Loss Per Share

The Company computes loss per share in accordance with ASC 260 – Earnings per Share. ASC 260 requires presentation of both basic and diluted earnings per share ("EPS") on the face of the consolidated statements of operations. Basic EPS is computed by dividing net loss available to common shareholders (numerator) by the weighted average number of shares outstanding (denominator) during the period. Diluted EPS gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during the period using the treasury stock method and convertible notes payable using the if-converted method. Diluted EPS excludes all dilutive potential shares if their effect is antidilutive. During periods of net loss, all common stock equivalents are excluded from the diluted EPS calculation because they are antidilutive. A beneficial conversion feature that arises from a contingent conversion feature has no accounting impact until the contingency occurs. The Company evaluated whether it is necessary to recognize a beneficial conversion feature by comparing the adjusted effective conversion price of the convertible preferred stock with the commitment-date fair value of the entity's common stock. The Company determined that a beneficial conversion feature existed, and recognized the beneficial conversion feature, creating a discount on the convertible preferred stock instrument. This discount was amortized in accordance with ASC 470-20-35-7. The amortization of the discount created by a beneficial conversion feature, which is recognized as a result of the resolution of a contingency, is treated as a dividend that reduced net income in arriving at income available to common stockholders.

Securities that are excluded from the calculation of weighted average dilutive common shares because their inclusion would have been antidilutive are:

	For the six months ended June 30, 2021	For the six months ended June 30, 2020
Options	2,900,000	12,385
Warrants	200,000	360,000
Total potentially dilutive shares	3,100,000	372,385

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank and financial institution deposits that at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts through June 30, 2021.

Investments - Equity Method

The Company accounts for equity method investments at cost, adjusted for the Company's share of the investee's earnings or losses, which are reflected in the consolidated statements of operations. The Company periodically reviews the investments for other than temporary declines in fair value below cost and more frequently when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. As of June 30, 2021, the Company believes the carrying value of its equity method investments were recoverable in all material respects.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

As an emerging growth company ("EGC"), the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act ("JOBS Act") allows the Company to delay adoption of new or revised accounting pronouncements applicable to public companies until such pronouncements are applicable to private companies. The Company has elected to use this extended transition period under the JOBS Act until such time, as the Company is no longer considered to be an EGC, which is expected to be on December 31, 2021.

In August 2020, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standard Update ("ASU") No. 2020-06 ("ASU 2020-06") "Debt-Debt with Conversion and Other Options (Subtopic 470-20) and Derivatives and Hedging-Contracts in Entity's Own Equity (Subtopic 815-40): Accounting for Convertible Instruments and Contracts in an Entity's Own Equity." ASU 2020-06 simplifies the accounting for convertible instruments by reducing the number of accounting models for convertible debt instruments and convertible preferred stock. Limiting the accounting models results in fewer embedded conversion features being separately recognized from the host contract as compared with current GAAP. Convertible instruments that continue to be subject to separation models are (1) those with embedded conversion features that are not clearly and closely related to the host contract, that meet the definition of a derivative, and that do not qualify for a scope exception from derivative accounting and (2) convertible debt instruments issued with substantial premiums for which the premiums are recorded as paid-in capital. In addition, ASU 2020-06 amends the guidance for the derivatives scope exception for contracts in an entity's own equity to reduce form-over-substance-based accounting conclusions. The Amendments also affects the diluted EPS calculation for instruments that may be settled in cash or shares and for convertible instruments. The amendments are effective for public entities excluding smaller reporting companies for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim periods within those fiscal years. For all other entities, the amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, including interim periods. The Company adopted the new standard update on January 1, 2021, which did not have a material impact.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02 (Topic 842), Leases, and issued subsequent amendments to the initial guidance or implementation guidance including ASU 2017-13, 2018-01, 2018-10, 2018-11, 2018-20 and 2019-01 (collectively, including ASU 2016-02, "ASC 842"), which supersedes the guidance in topic ASC 840, Leases. The new standard requires lessees to classify leases as either finance or operating based on whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase by the lessee. This classification will determine whether related expenses are recognized based on the effective interest method or on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. For any leases with a term of greater than 12 months, ASU 2016-02 requires lessees to recognize a lease liability for the obligation to make the lease payments arising from a lease, and a right-of-use asset for the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term. An election can be made to account for leases with a term of 12 months or less similar to existing guidance for operating leases under ASC 840.

The new standard will also require new disclosures, including qualitative and quantitative requirements, providing additional information about the amounts recorded in the financial statements. For public companies, the new standard is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The accounting standard is effective for non-public entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022. We have elected this extension and the effective date for us to adopt this standard will be for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021. The Company does not anticipate the new standard will have an impact since the Company does not currently has leases.

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which requires the Company to measure and recognize expected credit losses for financial assets held and not accounted for at fair value through net income. ASU 2016-13 is intended to replace the incurred loss impairment methodology in current US GAAP with a methodology that reflects expected credit losses and requires consideration of a broader range of reasonable and supportable information to inform credit loss estimates to improve the quality of information available to financial statement users about expected credit losses on financial instruments and other commitments to extend credit held by a reporting entity at each reporting date.

In April 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-04, Codification Improvements to Topic 326, Financial Instruments ("ASU 2019-04"). This amendment clarifies the guidance in ASU 2016-13 was further clarified by ASU No. 2019-11, Codification Improvements to Topic 326, Financial Instruments ("ASU 2019-11") issued in November 2019. ASU 2019-11 provides transition relief such as permitting entities an accounting policy election regarding existing TDRs, among other things. In May 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-05, Financial Instruments-Credit Losses (Topic 326): Targeted Transition Relief ("ASU 2019-05"). The purpose of this amendment is to provide entities that have certain instruments within the scope of Subtopic 326-20, Financial Instruments-Credit Losses-Measured at Amortized Cost, with an option to irrevocably elect the fair value option in Subtopic 825-10, Financial Instruments-Overall, on an instrument-by-instrument basis. Election of this option is intended to increase comparability of financial statement information and reduce costs for certain entities to comply with ASU 2016-13. For public entities, ASU 2016-13 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019, including interim periods within those fiscal years.

Emerald Grove Asset Purchase

On July 30, 2018, Jason Sunstein, the Chief Financial Officer, entered into a Residential Purchase Agreement ("RPA" or "the Agreement") to acquire real property located in Hemet, California, which included approximately 80 acres of land and a structure for $1.1 million from an unrelated seller. The property includes the main parcel of land with an existing structure along with three additional parcels of land which are vacant plots to be used for the purpose of development "vacant plots". The purpose of the transaction was as an investment in real property to be assigned to the Company subsequent to acquisition. On March 18, 2019, Mr. Sunstein assigned the deed of the property to the Company. The total of the consideration plus acquisition costs assets of $1,122,050 was allocated to land and building in the following amounts: $271,225 – Land; $850,826 – Building. The land is an indefinite long-lived asset that was assessed for impairment as a grouped asset with the building on a periodic basis.

Oasis Park Title Transfer

On June 18, 2019, Baja Residents Club SA de CV ("BRC"), a related party with common ownership and control by our CEO, Robert Valdes, transferred title to the Company for the Oasis Park property which was part of a previously held land project consisting of 497 acres to be acquired and developed into Oasis Park resort near San Felipe, Baja. ILA recorded the property held for sale on its balance sheet in the amount of $670,000 and accordingly reduced the value as plots are sold. As of June 30, 2021, the Company reported a balance for assets held for sale of $647,399.

The Company transferred title to individual plots of land to the investors since the Company received this approval of change in transfer of title to ILA. The Company has not recognized any revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2021, since the Company did not sell any plots.

NOTE 7 - EQUITY METHOD INVESTMENT

In May 2021, the Company acquired a 25% investment in Rancho Costa Verde Development, LLC ("RCV") in exchange for 3,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock at a determined fair value of $0.86 per share and $100,000 in cash for total consideration of $2,680,000. The fair value of the non-monetary exchange was determined based on a valuation report obtained from an independent third-party valuation firm. The market approach estimates fair value based on a weighted average between the listed price of the Company's common share and the Company's recent private transaction adjusted for a lack of marketability discount.

The investment has been accounted for under the equity method. It was determined that the Company does not have the power to direct the activities that most significantly impact RCV's economic performance, and therefore, the Company is not the primary beneficiary of RCV and RCV has not been consolidated under the variable interest model.

As of June 30, 2021, Management recorded the value attributable to the Series B of $293,500 as temporary equity on the consolidated balance sheet since the instrument is contingently redeemable at the option of the holder. The Company recognized such BCF as a discount on the convertible preferred stock. The amortization of the discount created by a BCF recognized as a result of the resolution of the contingency is treated as a deemed dividend that reduced net income in arriving at income available to common stockholders.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Overview of Our Company

International Land Alliance, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated pursuant to the laws of the State of Wyoming on September 26, 2013. We are based in San Diego, California. We are a residential land development company with target properties located primarily in the Baja California Norte region of Mexico and Southern California. Our principal activities are purchasing properties, obtaining zoning and other entitlements required to subdivide the properties into residential and commercial building plots, securing financing for the purchase of the plots, improving the properties' infrastructure and amenities, and selling thep lots to homebuyers, retirees, investors and commercial developers. We offer the option of financing (i.e. taking a promissory note from the buyer for all or part of the purchase price) with a guaranteed acceptance on any purchase for every customer.

Overview

As of June 30, 2021, we had:

- The Company executed residential plot sales agreements for its Valle Divino project and accepted reservations for home sales for its Plaza Bajamar project. To avoid paying multiple title transfer fees and the extended time for each recording, the seller for both parcels, Valdeland, S.A. de C.V. is in the process of creating a master bank trust. This will provide the Company through its Mexico subsidiary, International Land Alliance, S.A. de C.V., the rights, and interest to each property, including buildings and improvements. As demonstrated from the Company's Oasis Park Resort, this will also potentially allow the Company to record revenue from Valle Divino and Plaza Bajamar projects, as sales are made, and individual trusts are established for each buyer, pending further review of Mexican trust law. The Company expects to have this trust established by the end of our fourth fiscal quarter.
- Continued our research and marketing efforts to identify potential home buyers in the United States, Canada, Europe, and Asia. Through the formation of a partnership with a similar development company in the Baja California Norte Region of Mexico, we have been able to leverage additional resources with the use of their established and proven marketing plan which can help us with sophisticated execution and the desired results for residential plot sales and development.
- Continued the development of our interactive website for visitors to view condominium and villa options and allow customization.
- Title of the Oasis Park Resort in San Felipe was assumed during 2019. As progress continues on the development of the Oasis Park Resort, we are expecting the transfer of title on the Villas del Enologo in Rancho Tecate, Valle Divino in Ensenada, Baja California and Costa Bajamar in Ensenada, Baja California during the Company fourth fiscal quarter of 2021, as it continues to follow the necessary steps to complete this legal process.
- . Continued our efforts to secure the proper financing and capital by exploring various options that will help achieve our goals of advanced development and additional investment opportunities.

• Completed the refinancing of our existing first and second mortgage loans on the 80 acres of land and existing structure of our Emerald Grove property for aggregate principal amount of $1,787,000, and net funding of approximately $387,000.

Net Loss

We finished the six months ended June 30, 2021, with a net loss of $2,965,313, as compared to a net loss of $1,309,660 for the six months ended June 30, 2020. Such increase in the Company's net loss is primarily the result of increased sales and marketing expenses from the issuance of stock-based compensation under consulting agreement, increased general and administrative costs, specifically stock-based payments from consulting services and investor relations fees.

The factors that will most significantly affect future operating results will be:

Capital Resources and Liquidity

Cash was $16,841 and $13,171 as of June 30, 2021, and December 31, 2020, respectively. As shown in the accompanying financial statements, we recorded a loss of $2,965,313 for the six months ended June 30, 2021. Our working capital deficit as of June 30, 2021, was $2,439,469 and net cash flows used in operating activities for the six months ended June 30, 2021, were $365,054. These factors and our ability to raise additional capital to accomplish our objectives, raises substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. We expect our expenses will continue to increase during the foreseeable future as a result of increased operations, increased construction activity and the development of current and future projects which include our current business operations.

We anticipate generating continued revenues over the next twelve months, as we continue to market the sale of plots held for sale at our Oasis Park Resort and we obtain title of our other projects. Consequently, we are dependent on the proceeds from future debt or equity investments to sustain our operations and implement our business plan. Subsequent to June 30, 2021, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement with institutional and accredited investors for the issuance of an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares of common stock with an equivalent number of warrants for net proceeds of $1.9 million.

Critical Accounting Polices

In December 2001, the SEC requested that all registrants list their most "critical accounting polices" in the Management Discussion and Analysis. The SEC indicated that a "critical accounting policy" is one which is both important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and results, and requires management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain.

There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies, with the exception of the Company's new equity-method investment, as compared to the critical accounting policies and significant judgments and estimates disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2020, filed with the SEC on April 2, 2021. The accounting of the Company's equity-method investment requires judgement by management to determine whether these is significant influence or control over the Company's investee. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over these policies.

Contingencies

For a discussion of contingencies, see Note 8, Commitments and Contingencies, to the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in "Part I, Item 1. Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)" of the Quarterly Report.

Off-balance Sheet Arrangements

During the period ended June 30, 2021, we have not engaged in any off-balance sheet arrangements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

For a listing of our new and recently adopted accounting standards, See Note 2, Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, to the note to the consolidated financial statements in "Part I, Item 1. Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)" of this Quarterly Report.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Not required under Regulation S-K for "smaller reporting companies."

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company's Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer (the Certifying Officers) are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures for the Company. An evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) was carried out by us under the supervision and with the participation of our Certifying Officers. Based upon that evaluation, our Certifying Officers have concluded that as of June 30, 2021, our disclosure controls and procedures, that are designed to ensure (i) that information we are required to disclose in reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and (ii) that such information is accumulated and communicated to management, including our Certifying Officers, in order to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure, were not effective.

As of June 30, 2021, based on evaluation of these disclosure controls and procedures, management concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective. We will be required to expend time and resources hiring and engaging additional staff and outside consultants with the appropriate experience to remedy the weaknesses described below. We cannot assure you that management will be successful in locating and retaining appropriate candidates or that newly engaged staff or outside consultants will be successful in remedying material weaknesses thus far identified or identifying material weaknesses in the future.

A material weakness is a control deficiency (within the meaning of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) Auditing Standard No. 2) or combination of control deficiencies that result in more than a remote likelihood that a material misstatement of the annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected. Management has identified the following two material weaknesses which have caused management to conclude that as of June 30, 2021, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at the reasonable assurance level:

- inadequate internal controls relating to the authorization, recognition, capture, and review of transactions, facts, circumstances, and events that could have a material impact on the Company's financial reporting process.
- inadequate controls over maintenance of records.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There has been no change to our internal control over financial reporting during our most recent fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
